

List paragraph about Qualities of a Good Student:

- Conscientiousness: consistently strives to meet deadlines, complete assignments to the best of their ability, and actively participate in class.
- Responsibility: takes ownership of their learning and takes steps to correct mistakes and improve their performance.
- Time Management: effectively manages their time to balance academic, personal, and extracurricular activities.
- Curiosity: shows a genuine interest in their studies, asks questions, and seeks additional information to deepen their understanding.
- Independence: able to work independently and take initiative in their learning.
- Adaptability: adjusts to new situations and changes in the learning environment with ease.
- Organization: keeps track of assignments, materials, and schedules in an organized manner.

Here's a procedure paragraph about the steps to admit to the Fashion Design and Technology (FDT) department at Bangladesh University of Fashion and Technology (BUFT):

Steps to Admit to the FDT Department at BUFT:

- Check eligibility: Review the admission requirements for the FDT program and make sure you meet the minimum criteria.
- Submit an application: Fill out the BUFT admission application form and attach the necessary documents, such as transcripts and test scores.
- Take an entrance exam: If required, take the BUFT entrance exam to demonstrate your knowledge and skills.
- Attend an interview: If applicable, participate in an interview to showcase your creativity, passion, and motivation for the program.
- Pay the fees: Once you have been accepted, pay the admission and tuition fees to secure your place in the FDT program at BUFT.
- Prepare for your studies: Get ready for your studies by reviewing the course syllabus, purchasing necessary materials, and familiarizing yourself with the university resources